History Of The Class Of 1941

Now as the class of '41 draws so near to graduation it seems a long way back to those days in 1930 when we were timid little "first graders" in Miss Erickmann's room. Remember those demerits she used to give? As we passed from grade to grade there were Miss Brown and her circus, Miss Speigner and her spelling, Mrs. Aarrowsmith and her notebooks, and Miss Edwards and her geography. In the sixth grade we had our first experience in departmental work. Miss McDaniel taught us drawing, Miss Reynolds, Math, Miss Edwards and Mr. Godbold held numerous spelling matches.

In 1936 we came up to high school to enter the seventh grade. That year "Miss Louise," "Miss Susie" and Miss Harley were our teachers. With the use of cold cream and cocoa we became make-believe Indians in "Hiawatha," an operetta presented by "Miss Louise."

The next year we were real high school students. We continued to climb from class to class. There was science from Miss Swails, math from Mr. Pierce, Mr. Rampey and Miss Crook, history from Miss Crockett, Latin and English from Miss Forrest, French from Miss Roberts, home economics from Miss Oosterbann, physical education from Mr. Welch, commerce and choir from Mr. Sherfey, shop and diversified occupations from Mr. Darby, music from Miss Daugherty, Miss Drumwright and Mr. Middleton, agriculture from Dr. Doar and Mr. Creel, and English from Mr. Montgomery. Miss Patterson was our librarian and advisor for the annual.

This class has had stars on our football, baseball and basketball teams so ably coached by Mr. Pierce, Mr. Welch, Mr. Coker and Miss McClure. We've had a band to be proud of.

Through our high school years Mr. White, our highly esteemed superintendent, who succeeded Mr. Swittenberg in 1935, and Mr. Montgomery, our beloved principal, have always seemed so willing to help us.

And so may this entire class remember these happy days which are so valuable to us. May we use our abilities as we should and may we bring honor to our school.

REUNION OF CLASS OF 1941

The highlight of the commencement of 1951 was the reunion of the class of '41. Serving as hosts were Miss Rounette McKenzie, who was recently elected physical Education instructor of K. H. S., and Donald Montgomery, assistant to Coach Welch.

This reunion was held in the banquet hall of the Kellahan Hotel, and the feast was capably served by Louise Strong, Vivian Thompson, Louise Nexsen, and Vivian Smith, hostesses of the hotel.

The master of ceremonies was Harold Drucker, former class president, who is now head coach at Yale university. The welcoming address was made by Judge Sam Wingate; with the response by Dr. Catherine Harper of Winthrop college.

The Invocation was pronounced by Rev. Paul Wood of Emory University.

Talks were made by Colonel Warren Miles of Fort Bragg; Governor Bryan Thompson of Florida; Dr. Julian Nexsen, surgeon of Hopkins University; and Lillie Mae Canty, assistant to Rev. Sinnott McCrea of Central Church. A vocal duet was rendered by Cecil Parker and Olive Evans; accompanied by Ruth Green, musical director of Columbia College.

Among the seated guests were:

Milton Duke, proprietor of the Magic Lantern night club.

Lillian Alsbroom, secretary to Senator Hubert Cantly.

Jocelyn Elmore and Mildred Godbold, instructors in the Charleston School of Beauty Culture.

Doris Aronson, Winston Boyd, and Lavirgin Burgess, members of the high school faculty of Charlotte, N. C.

Jane Epps, a hostess of the J. P. Gilleland Airlines.

S. P. Britton and Rut Hall, contenders for the Northeastern Middleweight championship.

Helen Cole and Gertrude Brown, members of the famous Sinclair Softball team.

Esther Davis, South Carolina State Historian and her assistant, Louise Sharpe.

Bobby Donnelly, famous playboy of New York City.

The former Misses Evelyn Douglass, Rose Friedman, Elizabeth Hanna, who have recently married naval officers.

Heyward Tisdale, president of the Tisdale Publishing company.

La June Floyd and Dunbar McClary, coach and assistant coach of Notre Dame.

Dr. Wilmot McCollough of the Kelly Memorial Hospital with three of his nurses—Ellen Johnson, Merrel Lane, and Ellen Mouzon.

Betty Lou Thompson, famous New York designer.

The ormer Miss Betty McItosh of Beulah.

Dorothy Crawford, who came by plane from Hollywood where she just finished making her latest picture.

Mobley Grayson, owner of Green Acres plantation at Cedar Swamp.

Jerome Askins, proprietor of Askins Tavern.

Martin McCrea, agricultural teacher in Lake City.

Salter Tuttle, sports announcer for station LANES from which Othele Tisdale is a featured singer.

Jerry McClary and Carrie Mae Marshall, owners of The Fashion Shop on 5th Avenue.

Betty Welch, head of the music department at Converse.

Elinor McIntosh, Dean off Women at the University of California.

Buck Gullledge, head of the Transcontinental Trucking company.

The press was represented by Myrtle Ritter of the County Astonisher.

Marvin McCutchen, Laurice Tisdale, Elton Monk, Randolph McCutchen, and Rembert Mouzon sent regrets from Fort Dix.

A cable was received from Deams Baylor on the S. S. America expressing his good will wish for the reunion.

Alice Lee Smeltzer, Ella Frances Stewart, and Annie Mae Dennis wired regrets rom the Roosevelt Memorial hospital in Atlanta.

Old memories of their high school days were brought back to the class of '41 as they all sang the Alma Mater.

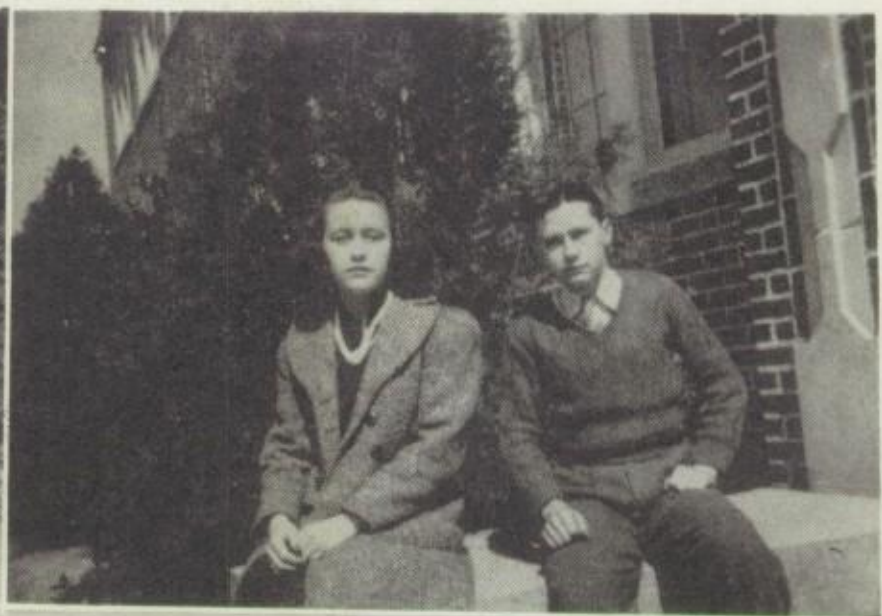

After the banquet, everyone danced to the melodious music of Herb (Dorcey) Stackly and his Rhythm Band. Hubert Hanna was sliding his way to fame on his trombone, and Pike Van Keuren trumpeting his way to the top; while Jack (Krupa) Gourdin was realizing his greatest ambition. With the orchestra was the famous song and dance team—

The Kings Choir

Former contest ratings of the Kings Choir is evidence of the fact that the training received is second to none in the State. Standings of former choir members in college musical organizations is a source of much satisfaction to the director and to the school officials. Each year choir members wonder if the loss of seniors will retard the choir's progress of the coming year but the group has reached new heights of accomplishment each year. This year, however, the boys section is without any experienced voices and the choir has not been able to give any concerts.

The Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club—the girls of the choir—distinguished themselves this year by returning from the Coker Contest with a beautiful silver loving cup. Last year was their first year to enter and they tied Georgetown for the cup. After much difficulty in determining the winners, their opponents were awarded the cup. Our girls say they are going to keep the cup by winning it next year and the year after.

Nubie Wilson

Words can't possibly express these boys. They were winners of eleven straight games without a defeat; champions of the state. They were the idols of the town and their school. We could name several stars among the squad but we would rather think of them all as stars. Because they were one unit, indivisible, working together for one another, with but one thought—to win. Look at the smashing results they left in every town and along with that score they left a feeling of good sportsmanship, clean playing and admiration from the spectators.
